✓Welcome to Galilee CPA Review®

Galilee CPA Review®, a program of Galilee Professional Institute. Our head office is located on the eastern tip of the lovely picturesque settlement of New Providence, which is a short eight miles of Nassau, the capital of The Bahamas. Nassau is the tourist Mecca of the Atlantic. Its rich spiritual scope and the hospitable inhabitants give rise to a conducive environment for personal growth. The facility is situated in the Galilee Corporate Centre, Joe Farrington Road.

Visitors to the college are welcome. The office is open Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

About the CPA Professor

Dr. Willis L. Johnson is a renowned veteran lecturer. For the past nine years he has been engaged in directing the Galilee CPA Review program. He is known for his profound academic theatrics as he delivers the CPA curriculum.

His success rate is phenomenal and measures alongside in the region. Dr. Johnson was the guest of the AICPA and NASBA at a joint meeting in New York, New York on December 15, 2003 as they announced the final changes to the new computer-based CPA exam. During this joint meeting in New York, Dr. Johnson played an integral part in the discussions, alongside, other prominent Review providers, such as Dr. Irvin Gleim, and Dr. Jim Rigos.

The AICPA invited him again to attend the joint meeting and follow-up session scheduled for December 6, 2004 in Jersey City, New Jersey.

The Galilee CPA Review is newly fueled and well prepared to provide quality instruction by way of a sophisticated approach that will catapult candidates to the levels of success that they aspire to.

The Galilee Gleim connection: Dr. Gleim has been helping candidates pass the CPA exam since 1966. Throughout Dr. Gleim's years of experience, he has seen numerous changes to the CPA exam and the accounting profession as a whole. We are confident that our superior materials that utilize our Knowledge Transfer Systems will help you pass the first time.
